

Thank you for inviting the Circle City Ringers to be a part of your musical experience. We truly appreciate the opportunity to share the art of English Handbell ringing with you.

The Circle City Ringers is an auditioned, community-based handbell ensemble from the greater Indianapolis area. Under the direction of Mike Keller, this ensemble performs year-round for many different kinds of events, including church services, weddings, civic events, private parties, festivals, and workshops.

If you would like more information about Circle City Ringers, please visit us online at www.circlecityringers.org or Like us on Facebook. We also invite you to come up and meet us after our performance—we'd love to say hello to you!
